

My Quantum Wave

1- Ultimate pleasure

2- Things you are absolutely obsessed, in love doing. You can do it all day, losing track of time and it comes natural for you.

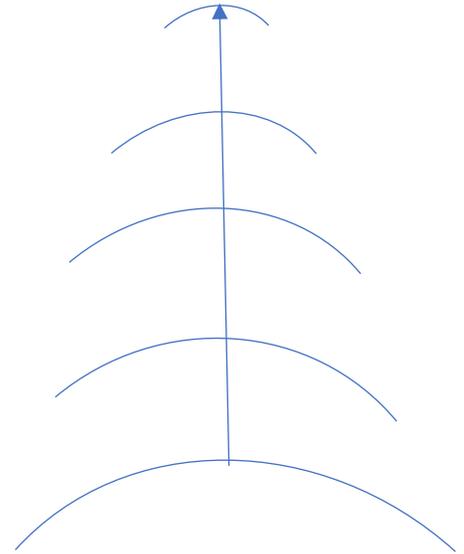

3- 3 Goals- (vision board)

4- 4 Gate keepers (cards) – What you need to come in to your experience. What tools you will need this season to assist you with your 3 goals above.

5- 5 character “reprograms” that are directly associated with your seasons lesson themes. You know the lessons that keep hitting you in the face. I am wealthy.

- My energy is valuable.
- I receive love in all forms that service me for my highest good.
- I’m the luckiest goddess on the planet.
- People see me and are attracted to me.
- The world sees me as an interesting individual.

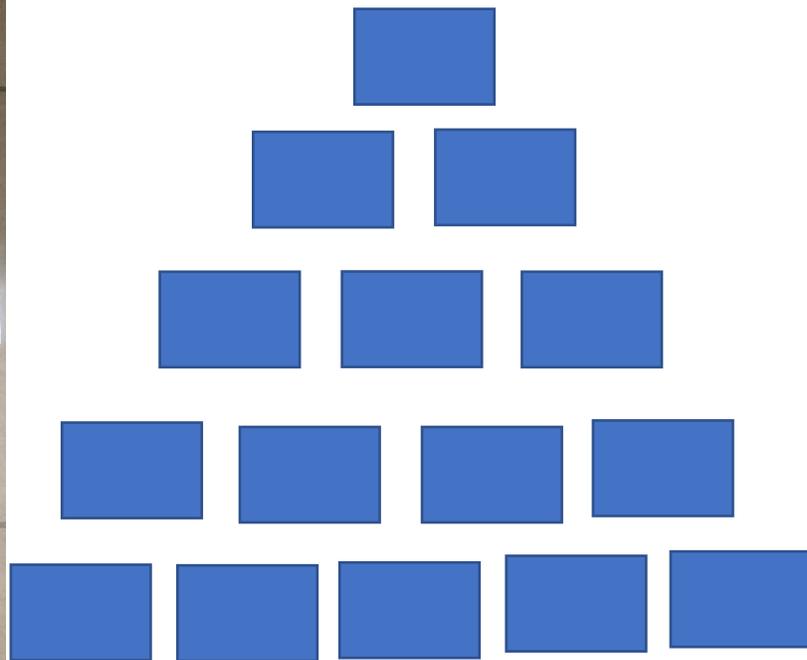

This list could be more than 5 particularly if something pops up that you need to address and reprogram out of your manifestations way. Also known as energy manipulation.

Think of these as the bumpers that are put up for the children when they go bowling. When you run your day through this funnel, your weeks get more focused. Your results are more spot on. More consistent. You are moving seemingly FASTER through the process.

THIS is the harnessing actively progressing in to the harvest. Observing your process, your mood, your thoughts, your influence. Reducing greatly probability of distractions. Your valuable energy is finally harnessed, corralled into the same direction.

Draw/Set up/transfer (Like a Quantum/Pyramid) on THREE DIFFERENT INDEX CARDS. Put one on your bathroom mirror to review every morning. Keep one in your purse or wallet. It will appear at the right time. Whip it out when a decision needs to be made. And keep on in your home office space. Repetition is a part of conditioning. Harnessing is wielding all your energy towards ONE direction.

Your WHY is the top tier. Why you are working so hard on yourself. Why you are in this class. Why you are taking the hard look at yourself. Why you are challenging yourself on another level. Why you are cutting some people off. Why you are choosing to stay single for a season longer?

Why you are having the set of lessons you are having. Why some stuff keep repeating. Why you keep waking up staying consistent. The ULTIMATE lasting feeling and expression that you want to rest in, perpetually.

This visual reminder will keep your attention focused towards the top. Not side to side. A head. Blinders. Tunnel vision.

I've learned in this journey that a loss often is simultaneously a win.
