

A Kelly Maresha Perspective

#KanyeWest IS mentally/emotionally unbalanced. And not arguably has a triple diagnosis by the psychology world. He is gravity with no ground. He has no container. Can I have your attention for 5 minutes?

#KanyeWest's mother WAS his container. And the problem is, like with most containers, if you yourself never learn how to be that for yourself, WHEREVER THE CONTAINER GOES YOU GO. Or you have to find a new one. So when your container is snatched away from you, you WILL spill out all over the place.

#KanyeWest is nothing more than a raging ocean without land surrounding him. Imagine Earth not realizing she is both the land and the water. I use 'she' loosely to make connection between Kanye's fragile feminine emotion energy to that of the MOTHER. (both naturally and esoterically) To give himself borders. To give himself the container. Everyone has a container; you provided for yourself or it be provided for you. Willingly or by force. And it has zero to do with money.

#KanyeWest then carried this turbulent energy into and gave allowed the responsibility of container to #KimKardashian. Because of Kim's desperateness to be in a meaningful relationship she did what most women do. NURTURED. Forming the agreement with him to bare for/with him his infirmities. And that for a little while worked. Kim is a special ionic bond with Kanye. And I don't care what anybody says about her cause believe me people have plenty to say about you too. And guess what? None of it matters. They both are a piece of work and that is why they attracted to one another.

But #KanyeWest Listened to her for a little while and he seemingly was allowing her to be his new Donda. What happened? ANSWER: The container of a genius MUST be their own. Established through self-exploration & personal objective. Kim's container was built by and for HER. And her container was demonstrated and influence by a completely different world. He doesn't fight KIM per say. He NOW fights her container, because he's restless. It was good for a while, but its not enough. And not enough in measure. Enough In ENERGY. His container is HIS own voice & permission, HIS limit. Not anyone else's feedback and doesn't that make a LOT more sense for a mind like Ye?

#KanyeWest's new container must start by working with someone slowly and privately on HOW to develop his own. Not a therapist obviously. That's not working. Someone who is insightful, strong willed and has a deep personal understanding. The thing about

Chaotic mental conditions, and particularly mood imbalances, the container is far more than just a person that you can hear from and a sounding board. Your container is one that you have to set up yourself. Because you're the only person you will listen to at times. Making a new agreement with yourself and submitting to your own agreement will give that person a peace that can only be given by god. (god=yourself)

#KanyeWest The container has to be one that you set up because overtime you have to recondition yourself to at least listen to yourself.

And if you set up parameters during moments where you are baseline or sound, you're much more likely to adhere to your own safeguards.

#KanyeWest needs to learn how to provide his own container. And he also needs to recondition himself to listen to his own container. To quote the legend Gnarl Barkley, "And when you're out there, without care, yeah I was out of touch. But it wasn't because I didn't know enough. I just knew too much."

#KanyeWest is a creative genius. Through and through. Every great that you worship and "their philosophy, they themselves were lunatic of their time. Even the car of the West Coast was named after a man who was said to have died with a pigeon whom he was having a love affair with. America has to do an overhaul of what they believe about mental conditions and how they materialize. Kanye is wired in a different way that only people that are designed like him can understand. Where are the mood conditions? Surround ya boy.

#KanyeWest I want him to look back at this season and continue to be impressed with how far he's grown. But he is NEVER going to behave docile like y'all want him to. That's just gal. He's full of that. But that is what made us love him. Kanye needs to work with a professional like myself to START with a 90 day mood observation journal. Where I can genius meets a genius, magical things happen. It is my absolute hope that he's able to work with someone like myself to demonstrate & help him develop his own container before that choice is taken away from him.

Without a protective 'container';
THE BEST thing about yourself becomes the worst thing about yourself.

Your essence unprotected will create a self-sabotaging counter-loop. You must establish your own 'container' if complete freedom is your goal.
